

CHARLIE EASTMAN IS AGAIN A WINNER

Jacksonville, Fla., February 16.—J. W. Schorr's aged son of Himyar, Charlie Eastman, added another victory to his already long list at Moncrief this afternoon, when he romped home in front of his field in the Key West selling stakes. H. STILL DEADLOCKED IN NATIONAL LEAGUE

New York, February 16.—The National League magnates are still deadlocked on the schedule question. As was the case yesterday, they convened at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and remained in session until 10:15, but were unable to decide on either the 158 or the 154 game schedule proposal. Accordingly, at the night session, it was decided to turn to a discussion of Lynch's deadlock, and that by consent the further consideration of the schedule had come over until tomorrow. The balance of the evening session, which would be spent in consideration of the report of the rules committee. A ballot on the schedule was taken when the meeting was first called to order. This showed that the situation

CHAMPION WELSH LOSING PRESTIGE

English Boxer Acts Like a "Quitter"—Fitzpatrick's Prediction.

New York, February 15.—In stopping Seaman Hayes in six rounds at the National Sporting Club, London, Monday night, Jim Driscoll, the British featherweight champion, did not surprise the talent, inasmuch as Hayes was twice beaten in 1907 in practically the same length of time by Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight champion. But Driscoll clearly demonstrated that he is a dangerous man for Welsh, who according to cable reports is not overanxious to meet him. Welsh and Driscoll agreed to fight recently at 130 pounds, but it seems that Welsh has blocked further proceedings by objections to Eugene Corri for referee. Corri is a highly respected member of the National Sporting Club and probably the fairest referee in Great Britain, so that Welsh's objection is regarded in the nature of a crawl. Meanwhile McFarland, the Chicago pugilist, is hot on Welsh's trail and his demand for a match is generally commended on the other side. So much so that Welsh will probably be forced to take him on for the title at the English lightweight limit, 130 pounds, scaling at least three hours before ring time, or stand in the light of a quitter. Welsh has talked so much about the alleged timidity of Battling Nelson that Englishmen, so the cable dispatches state, cannot understand why he should hesitate to make matches with both Driscoll and McFarland. Because of his backwardness, therefore, it is said that Welsh is losing much of his former prestige and is regarded in some quarters as a bluffer.

Johnson Is Overrated. Sam Fitzpatrick, who made Jack Johnson's record with his bold prediction that Jeffries will bury the negro in the coming heavyweight championship fight, Fitzpatrick says Johnson is overrated and will show the white feather when the boiler-maker puts on the pressure. Jeffries is on his way to San Francisco with the promise that he will begin active training without further delay. He will have a confab with Promoters Gleason and Coffroth, with the result that Frisco will be named as the battleground. It is reported that Jeffries had tired of Tex Rickard's incessant talking and is anxious to set him aside.

Veteran Announcers in a Group. During the fifteen-mile race in the Garden on Monday night six veteran announcers found themselves in a group and proceeded to recall old times. Steve O'Donnell, Johnny Dunn, Fred Burns, Peter Prunty, Joe Humphreys and Charley Harvey, who have introduced many famous pugilists, wrestlers and athletes to the New York sporting public for many years past, had a handshaking bee that amused the veterans. The incident was so unusual that they could not let it pass without employing the services of one of the flashlight photographers.

Future Indoor Running Race. In the Garden will be decided over a track made of earth and sawdust. The board floor provides too hard a surface for a long grind. While Meadows and Livingston did not appear to be handicapped in this respect, friends of Hans Holmer said that the usually fleet Canadian was unable to do himself justice.

McGraw Wants Konechey. President Robison, of the St. Louis Cardinals, advised that some time ago Manager McGraw, of the Giants, offered four players for First Baseman Konechey. Robison stated that the offer was turned down because the loss of Konechey would have meant empty benches in the Mounting Club. In speaking of the Giants' new outfielder, Al Shaw, who was sold by him to Brush for $1,500, Robison said:

"Shaw may be a good man for the New Yorks. He is a hard, free hitter and an excellent fielder, but we let him go because Bresnahan believed he was not fast enough in base stealing. He has plenty of speed in getting down to first base, but that is his limit. McGraw, however, may be able to coach him successfully, for Shaw is a willing worker and has plenty of ambition."

JOHNSON PRESIDENT FOR TWENTY YEARS

American League Re-Elects Its Chief Executive at Salary of $25,000 a Year—League Agreement Renewed for Same Period.

Chicago, Ill., February 16.—Byron Bancroft Johnson was re-elected president, secretary and treasurer of the American League, at a salary said to be $25,000 a year, at the closing session of the annual meeting held here today.

The agreement under which the league has existed since November, 1906, was renewed for a period of twenty years. In the new agreement is a clause forbidding any club owner or holder of stock in any club, to hold shares in any other club in the league, except as an emergency measure. All the other articles of the agreement were retained in the new one. Uniform tickets, with rain check coupons, practically the same as now in use in the National League, were adopted. A schedule of 154 games, opening on April 14 and closing on October 9, was unanimously adopted. It was announced that the dates selected would be retained whether the National League plays 154 or 158 games. If the National League selects the shorter season there will be only ten conflicting dates between the two leagues. These will be in Chicago, and two others in St. Louis.

This is the longest tenure of office ever elected. Johnson has been president of the league since 1906, and has made consistent with the length of the new agreement. It is said that Charles A. Comiskey, of Chicago, and Benjamin S. Shibe, of Philadelphia, were the men behind this signal tribute to Mr. Johnson as a league leader.

The adoption of a twenty-year agreement was said to be in the nature of a compromise. Some of the club owners favored the renewal for ten years, while others spoke for a perpetual agreement, such as now exists in the National League. This was the main subject of a debate in yesterday's meeting, and the voting on it was postponed until today.

The article added to the agreement, forbidding "syndicate baseball," reads as follows:

"Syndicate baseball is prohibited, except as an emergency measure, and then only with the consent of the league's president and directors, shall a stockholder in one club own or control stock in another club in the American League under penalty of being voted and dealt with as an undesirable associate, and barred from all connection with the league."

The Saginaw Club, of the Southern Michigan League, secured two American League recruits. It purchased Second Baseman Weaver from Cleveland and Pitcher Arnold from Philadelphia. The same club also bought Pitcher Rogers from the Springfield, Mo. club.

The majority of the club owners and managers left for their homes tonight.

Nothing Done Till River and Harbor Bill Was Already in House.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, D. C., February 16.—Representative Lamb has had several letters protesting against the provision in the river and harbor bill of the House for the James River, which would allow a second man to be paid a salary of $10,000 a year for the improvement of the river.

"I have just written a letter, giving my side of the controversy. The Committee on Rivers and Harbors held hearings for nearly a month, and on several occasions I called this to the attention of the committee, by letter and otherwise, saying that I would be glad to have their co-operation in securing as large an amount as possible for the improvement of the James. In the complaints to me a comparison of the report of the Treasury as well as the internal revenue and bank taxable values.

"In fact, this appropriation of $200,000 goes toward improving the navigation of James River, and really endures to the benefit of Richmond."

"I call attention to the further fact that the $100,000 appropriation for James River is made a continuing appropriation, and this is the first time I have been able to secure this language in one of these appropriations bills for improvement of rivers and harbors."

"I am perhaps as disappointed as any one else can be in not being able to secure more than $100,000. I have urged in season and on my colleagues to give a continuing appropriation of $100,000. I shall ask our Senators to make an effort to secure $500,000 more from the Senate."

"I presented a brief to one of the best-informed and active minority members of the Rivers and Harbors Committee and asked for a reply. His reply is short and pointed. He said: 'The fact is, that in the last ten years the James has been much better provided for than many rivers of more importance. In truth, its improvement has not justified the appropriations it has received, and still we are all partial to you and old Virginia, and will do more for you later on. The present bill is the first annual river and harbor bill ever presented, and we could not make it larger with safety.'"

"This covers the points made, save that in reference to the original project having for its object a uniform depth of twenty-two feet from Richmond to the sea. This phase of the matter I have so often presented to the committee and urged that the same reason that impelled them to finish the projects for the Southern ports of Charleston and Jacksonville obtain as to Richmond. I need not enlarge on this point."

GRIM HAS CONFERENCE WITH OWNER BRADLEY

Jack Grim, who is a prospective purchaser of the Portsmouth franchise in the Virginia State League, and Owner W. B. Bradley, of the Richmond club, were in conference at Murphy's Hotel last night, but what Mr. Grim will do about the matter was not given out. Grim is willing to accept the franchise, it is said, but the understanding will be that he will be in charge of the management. A former deal, which was about to be closed, is said to have been broken, or because a second man was brought in to conduct the affairs of the team.

debate in the Board of Aldermen on Tuesday night, gave several members to understand that, even as amended, he had hopes of getting the ordinance through in his city, but who was quoted in the afternoon papers yesterday as having "gone over to the other side," and as having said that he would vote against the ordinance as amended. From statements made to the representative of this paper, it develops that Mr. Brown, who was present at the Board of Aldermen meeting, but who was not in the hall last night, did express the hope to Alderman Adams, Business Manager Dabney, of the Chamber of Commerce; Councilman Gilbert K. Pollock and several other that the ordinance even as amended would meet with approval on the Southside, as the debate had shown that other advantages had been inserted in the agreement which would counterbalance the reduction in the street guarantee.

In a statement issued yesterday Mr. Brown said that his committee was opposed to the amendments; that the greatly lessened the benefits of consolidation to Manchester; that he did not believe the amended ordinance would be approved by the Manchester Council, and that neither he nor the members of his committee would vote for it unless the Aldermen would immediately rescind their action.
